TUAM GOLF CLUB.

The 54 holes stroke competition for the final of the Member's Prize (1956) was played on the last two Sundays of September. Twenty-four players took out cards for the first 18 holes and twelve of these qualified for the second 18. At the end of the day eight players had qualified to contest the last 18 holes and the position was as follows:—

P. V. Smyth, 74 and 70—144; J. Heskin, 74 and 71—145; K. P. Loftus, 74 and 72—146; F. Cunniffe, 74 and 71—145; H. McCabe, 70 and 79—149; T. Leo, 71 and 78—149; F. Hession, 76 and 73—149; J. Conlon, 72 and 77—149.

At the end of 54 holes, P. V. Smyth and K. P. Loftus were tied at 221, and in the play-off over nine holes P. V. Smyth did a gross 36 (off 9) to Kevin Loftus' 46 (off 13). Third place was filled by Frank Cunniffe, who at one time seemed to have the field spreadeagled on the last day, but excessive caution around the turn brought about his downfall. There was a tie for the fourth place between Joe Conlon and Joe Heskin, and the former took the prize in the play-off.

The whole competition proved to be a great test of consistency and attracted a lot of attention, particularly on the last day when players had the added hazard of playing in front of a very critical gallery.

MEMBERS' PRIZE 1956-57.

The new series of Members' Prizes is started by Dr. P. Fitzgerald, who presents a prize for a 15-hole stroke competition to be played on Thursday (4th), Saturday (6th) or Sunday (7th) October. From now on there will be placing on the fairways except in the remaining matches of the Dr. Walsh Cup. Semi-finals of this competition are to be played on or before Sunday next.

MOUNTBELLEW and MOYLLOUGH AREA NEWS

(From our own Correspondent).

Death of Miss K. Gilmore.

The death took place recently of Miss K. Gilmore, Lurgan, Caltra, aunt of Messrs. Hugh and Eddie Gilmore, Castleblakeney; Mr. M. Gilmore, England, and Mrs. A. Lawlor, Four Roads, Roscommon and sister-in-law of Mrs. Gilmore, Lurgan. Deceased was a kindly and highly respected lady, and was a member of a family prominently identified with the Sinn Féin movement during the fight for independence.

The remains were removed to Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Caltra, and interment took place in the adjoining cemetery after solemn Requiem Mass. There was a large attendance at the funeral on both days.

Death of Mr. T. Grogan.

Deep regret has been occasioned by the rather unexpected death on September 22nd at St. John's Wood, London, of Mr. Thomas Grogan (45), son of Mrs. Mary and the late James Grogan, Kilkerrin. The remains arrived at Kilkerrin Church on Wednesday, 28th, and interment took place in Kilkerrin cemetery after solemn Requiem Mass the following day. The funeral was of huge dimensions on both days.

Chief mourners were: Mrs. Mary Grogan (mother); Messrs. Joseph Grogan, Shop St., Tuam; M. Grogan, Ballyforan; J. Grogan, Clonberne; Patrick Grogan, Lissacarra, Kilkerrin (brothers); Mrs. Owen Lee, Carrantubber, Kilkerrin; Miss Grogan, Shop St., Tuam (sisters) and another sister, a nun in Dublin. To the bereaved family and a wide circle of relatives sincere sympathy is extended.

Mountbellew Fairs.

There was a very large sheep fair in Mountbellew on Wednesday last week. Demand was brisk all round, and there was a large number of buyers present. Prices were, however, rather poor. Ewe hoggets (1½ year old) sold at from £6 to £7; wether hoggets, £4 to £5-10s; old ewes £3 to £5; lambs £4 to £6 (blackheads).

The cattle fair on Thursday was smaller than usual, farmers from outside districts being reluctant to bring out their stock as prevailing prices were so bad. Demand was very slack and prices were the lowest yet recorded this year. Highest price for best 3-year-old bullocks was £47; 2-year-olds, £35. Cows sold at from £30 to £45. There was no demand for calves or for small light cattle.

The pig market in Mountbellew on Tuesday was somewhat similar to that in Glenamaddy on Thursday last, but there was much better demand all round. Pigs under 16 stone sold at £8-10s per cwt., while heavier pigs sold as low as £8 per cwt. There was a fair supply of bonhams and prices ranged from £6 to £8 each. The general complaint was that bonhams were too dear and heavy pigs much too cheap.

Industry Project.

Following a conference with the directors of Messrs. John Bruton and Sons, Ltd., Talbot Street, Dublin, in connection with the new textile factory for Tuam, Mr. M. Donnellan, T.D., the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Finance, stated that in addition to the production, as originally proposed, of all types of poplin, furnishing fabrics, motor-hood linings and corduroy cloths, the promoters have decided to instal a new yarn-dyeing plant so that the factory when in production would provide employment for a far greater number than was originally estimated.

The promoters, who are to visit Tuam this week with a view to selecting a site for the new industry, said Mr. Donnellan, wish to express their appreciation of the co-operation and assistance which they have received from the Minister for Industry and Commerce and the Board of An Foras Tionnscail in bringing the negotiations to a successful conclusion. The promoters wish also to convey to His Grace the Archbishop of Tuam, and to Very Rev. P. Kelly, Adm., their appreciation of the interest taken in the project since it was first mooted.

"This new industry," said Mr. Donnellan, "will be a valuable asset to Tuam and to the West of Ireland generally, and is a further indication of the efforts of this Government to provide employment and to stop emigration." He was always confident, he said, that this industry would go to Tuam, in spite of many rumours to the contrary.

Moylough Marriage.

NELSON — KILGANNON.

The marriage took place on September 22nd at St. Patrick's Church, Moylough, of Mr. Peter Nelson, son of James and the late Mrs. Nelson, Carrickmacross, Co. Monaghan, to Miss Mary Kilgannon, Cloncaliga, Moylough.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. J. Fitzgerald, C.C., Moylough. The best man was Mr. Robert Nelson (brother of the groom), and the bridesmaid was Miss Brigid Kilgannon (sister of the bride).

The bride wore a frock of navy taffeta with white accessories and matching head-dress. The reception was held at the Imperial Hotel, Galway. The honeymoon was spent on a tour of Connemara and included a visit to the bride's aunt, Sister Martha, at Kilmore Abbey. The bride and groom returned to England after their honeymoon.

Wedding Bells.

MCCLOONE — BYRNE.

The marriage took place in St. Vincent De Paul Church, Marino, Dublin, of Mr. Frank McCloone, son of Mrs. McCloone and the late Mr. J. McCloone, 174 Phillipsburgh Avenue, Dublin, to Miss Monica Byrne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Byrne, Mountbellew, and Birmingham, England. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal blessing, was performed by the Very Rev. Patrick Crehan, C.C. (cousin of the bride). The best man was Mr. Sean McCloone (brother of the groom), and Miss Mae Roddy (cousin of the bride) and Miss Nan McCloone (sister of the groom) were the bridesmaids.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a full length white net frock over satin with three-quarter length white veil and head-dress to match. She carried a bouquet of tea roses and asparagus. The bridesmaids wore full length white satin frocks with white toques to match and carried bouquets of white carnations. The bride's attendant, Miss Rosita McDewitt (niece of the bridegroom), wore a ballet length white frock with head-dress of flowers to match. The reception, at which there was a large number of guests, was held at Dublin Airport and the honeymoon was spent on a tour of the South of Ireland.

Moylough Carnival.

At a recent meeting in the Town Hall, Moylough, it was unanimously decided to hold the 1957 Carnival at Moylough from the 19th to the 30th May. All the outgoing officers and committee members were elected.

Show Prizewinners.

Among the prizewinners at Ballinasloe Agricultural Show from Mountbellew-Moylough area were Miss Peg Fahy, Mountbellew; Miss Getta Murphy, Miss E. Gilmore, Mrs. Mattie Mannion, Mrs. Nash, Mrs. Gallagher and Master John Paul Colleran (all of Moylough). The ladies competed in the home produce, knitting and embroidery sections, while Master Colleran won his prize in the souvenir class.

FIVE MEN WENT TO HOSPITAL AFTER HURLING GAME.

FIVE men were taken to hospital one of them so seriously injured that his life was in danger—after a junior hurling game between Fohenagh and Tynagh at Kiltormer, which had to be abandoned owing to a row.

The incidents were strongly condemned at a meeting of the County Board G.A.A. in Galway on Monday night, when Fohenagh appealed against the East Board chairman's decision in disqualifying them from the Junior A Championship. The other team, Tynagh, were also disqualified.

Rev. Declan Gordon (chairman of the East Board), who refereed the match, gave an account of the incidents.

Fr. Gordon said that when the appointed referee did not turn up, he was approached by some of the Fohenagh players to referee the game. As a native of Tynagh, he did not want to do so, but since there was no one else to do the job he finally consented. The game was tame for 25 minutes and then one of the worst rows he had ever seen broke out. It was short, but one of the most bitter in his experience. He was approached by a member of the Garda Síochána and asked to call off the game, because it would be dangerous to continue.

Five men were brought to hospital—in one case it was accidental—and three of them were from Tynagh, he said. One man was detained in hospital. He was unconscious for some time and his condition was so bad "that the doctor in Portluncula could not tell us what his chances of survival were." The other received nine stitches, and the nurses and doctor stated that only for the fact that both of them were strong men they would be dead.

"Terrible and Frightening."

The incidents were so terrible and frightening to people who saw it that he called off the game. He would like the County Board to deal with this matter, Fr. Gordon concluded.

Mr. N. Farragher (Fohenagh) asked if Fr. Gordon was suggesting that the Fohenagh club was responsible for the row. They had been playing for twenty-five minutes against the wind, the rain and the hill and still led by seven points. It could hardly be suggested that Fohenagh would thus start the row, he said.

Mr. T. O'Connor (County Registrar): A Thurlus man was able to tell me in Lisdoonvarna that a man was brought to hospital in Ballinasloe with his ear hanging off.

Mr. O'Connor then proposed that the circumstances of the whole match be investigated. Mr. P. Naughton seconded.

Mr. Farragher: Is this Board going to licence a team that is losing to start a row? Who was in charge of this match—the County Board, the East Board or the Guards in Kiltormer?

Mr. Patrick Lyons (Tynagh) said that Mr. Farragher was only attacking Fr. Gordon and criticising the County Board.

Rev. Dr. Mooney (Tuam): Was it Mr. Farragher who asked Fr. Gordon to referee the match?

Mr. Farragher: It was Tim Sweeney.

Mr. Sweeney: I only asked him in the hope of getting fair play.

Fr. Gordon: Another reflection! The insinuation is that I did not give fair play.

Mr. Lyons said that since the match Fohenagh and Tynagh were to meet in a seven-a-side tournament in Bullaun, but because of the bitterness and the danger of another outbreak Tynagh decided not to take part.

Mr. Farragher: It was the opinion of most of the members of the East Board that a replay should be ordered.

"Drastic Action" Needed.

Rev. M. Walsh, C.C., Portumna (chairman), had vacated the chair to allow Mr. E. Walsh (Chairman of the West Board) to preside, said it was true that a big number of speakers wanted a replay but they were sympathetic to either the one side or the other. They were not sympathetic to the interests of the Association. They did so in the hope of getting a repetition of what happened in Kiltormer. He (Fr. Walsh) was the first to suggest that drastic action be taken.

"Are we going to stand for these terrible scenes? It's disgraceful, Fohenagh are here appealing and I think we should deal with them," he said.

Mr. P. Greaney (Ballinasloe) regretted that so much heat had been introduced into the debate. They should deal with the culprits and have them put behind bars if necessary.

Mr. Jim Duggan (Liam Mellows): All I can say is that we should be grateful that we have men like Fr. Gordon, Josie Gallagher, Fr. Gantley, and Mick Quaine to referee our games and that they are not afraid to put men off or call off the game if rows break out. It is good for the hurlers to know that these men will protect them. Until we get more referees like this, there's no use fixing matches.

Mr. B. Kelly (Loughrea), referring to Father Walsh's suggestion that Fohenagh be dealt with, said he would see to it that the East Board dealt with Tynagh too.

Fr. Gordon said that the real bone of contention was that he had shut his eyes to a previous incident when a Fohenagh player went to the sideline to get a bandage. "I can truthfully say I did not see this," he said. Mr. Farragher said that one of their players left the field to be treated three times. He was struck twice after returning to the field the first time.

Father Gordon: I must be blind altogether.

Mr. T. O'Connor proposed and Mr. Lyons seconded that the appeal be ruled out.

Fr. Walsh proposed and Mr. Kelly seconded that Fohenagh be suspended for
